- Presentations by Publishers
  - Presentation by Carnegie – CJ Johnson and Bill Driver
  - Presentation by Glencoe Math – Steve Tutunick, Joely Vegan, Theresa Bisel
- Review of Public Input
  - Committee members reviewed all of the input submitted.
  - The committee members made note of the concerns about Carnegie being unfriendly to parents and students.
  - The committee members expressed belief that most concerns about Glencoe were answered in the presentation.
- Recommendation for Adoption
  - Strauss led the committee discussion by creating a list of pros and cons.
  - After discussion of both products, it was moved by Amy Hope, seconded by Lyn Gorrindo that the committee recommend the Glencoe Math.
  - The vote was 8-0 to recommend Glencoe Math.
- Next Steps
  - The recommendation of the committee will be taken forward to the DCSD Board of Trustees for approval on January 14, 2014.
  - Amy Hope will help present to the school board with Rommy Cronin.
  - If approved by the DCSD Board of Trustees, the materials will then be sent to NDE for approval before being submitted to the Nevada State Board of Education.
